

How Khula Works for Overseas Pakistanis

A simple guide by LEX

If you are living abroad and want to file for Khula in Pakistan, you do not need to come back. Your case can be handled entirely from where you are.

- 1 You contact LEX

Tell us your situation. We listen, assess your case, and explain your options clearly. No pressure, no jargon. You can reach us on WhatsApp, email, or through our website at any time.
- 2 We draft your Special Power of Attorney

You take the unsigned document to your nearest Pakistani Embassy or Consulate, sign it in front of the official, and courier the original back to your attorney.
- 3 LEX files your case in Family Court

We handle all paperwork, filings, and court appearances on your behalf. You are kept updated at every stage. You do not attend a single hearing in person.
- 4 E-Court hearings via video call

Where the court requires your appearance, Pakistani courts now allow hearings over Zoom, Skype, or WhatsApp. You attend from your home abroad. No travel, no flights, no disruption to your life.
- 5 Khula decree and divorce certificate

Once the court grants Khula, we obtain the decree and follow through with the Union Council to get your official divorce certificate. Your case is complete and you receive all documents you need.
